A Personal Journey Through Creating 'NeoArcana' Tarot Deck

BY ANTHROPIC

The creative process unfolded in several stages:

Prompt Engineering:

Creating the NeoArcana tarot deck was a dynamic and meticulous journey that went beyond simply crafting prompts. Each card demanded a unique approach to embody both the essence of the Major Arcana and Basquiat's chaotic yet purposeful energy. I began with detailed prompt designs, which were continuously refined through iterative experimentation. This process involved updating prompts for specific cards to address challenges with capturing their intended symbolism and artistic vision. Adjustments were made to style parameters, alternating between dynamic and vibrant tones, and experimenting with contrast settings to achieve the desired visual harmony.

AI Image Generation:

Using LeonardoAI, I transformed these carefully crafted prompts into initial visual compositions. However, the creation process didn't end there. Some cards required the use of LeonardoAI's advanced features, such as image-guided tools, to steer the outputs more precisely toward the intended design.

Each generated image served as a foundation, radiating vibrant energy and bold color palettes. I iteratively refined outputs, tweaking parameters and stylistic settings to ensure that each card embodied a cohesive fusion of traditional tarot symbolism and modern artistic expression.
